Romance of Arlington A piety romance written by Miss Sarab A. Reec, of Erie, Pa. was read by her recently before a lite any club of which she is a distinguished member. The story is called "A Remance of Arliagton Hous " and is set forth in the letters of Miss Verginia Colon, a fi ti tious scion of several of the early families of the Old Dominion. The period covered dates from autumn of 1824 to that of 1825, when Lalayette, accompariet by the son whom he had named in onor of George Washington, visited this country, and was en erround at Arlungton. Tarough the imaginary but fascinating letters of Verginia Co as in review George Washington Park Custis, Mrs Custis-formerly Mrs Firzingh their dang ter, Mary Run-dolph Custis, and her by lover that espiring West Point cadet who was , later, to figure in history as the military leader of the Confederacyand any other real personales of that period. The home life and hespitality of the old time Virginia are faithfully portrayed, and the paintings, family portraits, china, silverware, and other Washington and Custis treasures—a pertesit of which are now on exhibition at the regioned Mt. Verm n and another portion in the possession of the surviving children of G-n. R-best E Lee-figure familiarly and vicidly in the tale, which is the result of a careful study of history and an unu-nal telent f r description.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Besidesgiving thousands of bright boys abundant spending money (some earn $15.00 a week) we teach our boys salesmanship, that quality that commands such high salaries in the modern business world. A Brooklyn insurance man, whose son sells THE POST, writes us:

"You are probably conducting the best business college on earth, for you are not dealing with theories but with cold facts in practice, based upon your excellent methods for encouraging and helping boys in every way."

Boys who want to make money, boys who want to be taught how to win, by one of the most successful business firms in the world-these are the boys we want to hear from. We can teach you how to "play the game" and you make good money while you are learning. It doesn't cost you a cent to start - for we furnish the first supply of magazines free and you can buy your next supply with the sales of the first.

We have a booklet that tells about some of our boys - the money they have made, the extra prizes they have won and how they gained success. If you are a "success boy"-made of the right stuff-we want you to write us-right now.
